(iii) who has passed the School Final or its equivalent examination:

Provided that any person applying for a Copy Writer’s licence under rule 6 shall be eligible for such licence if such person has passed class VI examination for promotion to class VII and has gained experience as an assistant to a Deed Writer in his profession for not less than three years on the date of application;

6. If any Copy Writer dies in harness or becomes incapacitated due to old age or otherwise having his/her family in immediate need of assistance, his/her spouse or any one of his/her sons/daughters/near relations may, with the written consent through an affidavit, duly affirmed by the spouse and all the other eligible sons/daughters who are entitled to be considered for grant of Copy Writer’s licence under these rules, apply through proper channel to the Inspector-General of Registration, West Bengal, for a Copy Writer’s licence under such special circumstances as may be specified in the application. The Inspector-General of Registration and Commissioner of Stamp Revenue, West Bengal, may, by order, direct a Registrar to issue a licence to the applicant, provided the applicant fulfils the conditions laid down in rule 5, other than the conditions referred to in clause (ii) and clause (iv), of that rule.

7. Disqualifications.—(1) A Copy Writer’s licence shall not be granted to a person,—

(f) if he is engaged in any gainful occupation or employment.

(2) In the case of refusal to grant a licence, the licensing authority shall record his reasons for refusal and communicate a copy of the order to the person applying for licence.

8. Application for licence.—Application for a Copy Writer’s licence in Form No. 1 shall be made in the candidate’s own hand-writing to the District Registrar through the local Registering Officer with testimonials and attested copies of certificates. If the District Registrar is satisfied that the applicant is fit to be a Copy Writer according to the provisions of these rules, he shall direct the applicant to pay the prescribed licence fee. On payment of the licence fee, the candidate’s name shall be entered in the register of Copy Writers in Form No. 2 against the particular Registration Office and a licence in Form No. 4 shall be issued to him through the Registering Officer concerned. The name of the Copy Writer with necessary particulars shall, at the same time, be communicated to the Registering Officer for entry in the register of Copy Writers in Form No. 3 maintained by him. The licence shall take effect from the date of issue and shall remain valid till the 31st December of the year of issue.

9. Renewal of licence.—(1) A licence issued under these rules may be renewed on year to year basis by the District Registrar, subject to good conduct, satisfactory work and physical fitness, duly certified by the Registering Officer under whose superintendence and control the Copy Writer works, by an endorsement on the body of the renewal application, on payment of the prescribed renewal fee. The application for renewal shall be filed to the Registering Officer in the month of November each year together with the Treasury Challan or Bank Draft or Money Order Receipt showing the remittance of renewal fee. The Registering Officer shall forward the application to the concerned District Registrar with necessary endorsement as required under this rule with his remarks, if any.

(2) Every application for renewal may be filed on or before the 31st day of December of the year of issue with late fee, provided the applicant succeeds in establishing that the delay was unavoidable.

(3) An application for such renewal may be made beyond the 31st day of December to the Inspector-General of Registration and Commissioner of Stamp Revenue, West Bengal, through proper channel together with the receipt of deposit of application fee of Rs. 50/- (Rupees fifty) only. If the Inspector-General of Registration and Commissioner of Stamp Revenue, West Bengal, is satisfied with the evidences furnished by the applicant and is of opinion that the delay may be condoned, he shall issue a separate order directing the District Registrar to renew the licence, if the applicant deposits late fee of Rs. 15/- (Rupees fifteen) only for the delay for each month or part thereof to be computed from the date following the 30th day of November.
10. Conditions of renewal.—(1) A licence shall not be renewed—
(a) if the licensee fails or has failed to observe any of the conditions of his licence or to comply with the direction of making deposit of renewal fees as provided in rule 9; or
(b) during the period for which the licence has been suspended; or
(c) if the licensee becomes physically unfit or mentally unbalanced to perform the duties of a Copy Writer.

(2) (a) The name of the Copy Writer, the renewal of whose licence is refused by the District Registrar under any provision of these rules, shall be struck off from the registers maintained by the District Registrar

the grant or renewal of licence shall lie to the Inspector-General of Registration and Commissioner of Stamp Revenue, West Bengal, within a period of thirty days from the date of communication to the person concerned of the order. The decision of the Inspector-General of Registration and Commissioner of Stamp Revenue, West Bengal, shall be final.

it is confirmed by the District Registrar;
(iii) a licensee so debarred from writing out copies in terms of sub-clause (ii) by any Registering Officer, may submit his prayer for restoration of his right to write out copies of documents to the District Registrar who granted him the licence, through the Registering Officer who debarred him from writing out copies, giving specific reasons for his non-compliance with the provisions of this clause and clauses (c) and (d);
